

Creating Compound Sentences Foldable Books

Are you ready for a challenge? Write your own main/independent clause at the top of the book.

Cut and glue the books as shown. Then, inside each fold, create a compound sentence using the same main clause, the co-ordinating conjunctions shown and another main/independent clause. Can you complete every section?

Example:

Part 1	Part 2
Creating Compound Sentences	My pet dog does not smell pleasant for and nor but or yet
	so
Glue part 1 here.	for he will not get in the bath.
	and it makes my eyes water.
	nor does he sleep.
	but he's going to the dog groomers this afternoon.
	or ever brush his teeth.
	yet it doesn't bother him!
	so I had to cover my nose.

Key:

--- Cut along the dashed lines.
 ..... Fold along the dotted lines.

Key:

--- Cut along the dashed lines.      ..... Fold along the dotted lines.

Part 1

Creating Compound Sentences

for

and

nor

but

or

yet

so

Part 2

Glue part 1 here.