

Robert Burns

Robert Burns was a _____. He was born on 25th _____ 1759. His birthplace was in _____, Ayrshire. His mother and father were called _____ and _____. He worked on the family _____ for many years whilst writing his early _____.

Robert Burns married Jean _____. He moved to _____ and became a taxman. He died in 1796, at the age of _____.

We remember him on his birthday by celebrating Burns Day with a Burns _____. At the beginning of the meal, we usually say 'The _____ Grace', followed by his famous poem 'To a _____'.

One of Robert Burns' most famous poems is Tam o' _____. This is set in the town of _____ and follows the story of _____, who rides home on his horse, _____, during a stormy night.

haggis	poems	Shanter	Dumfries
farm	Ayr	Alloway	Agnes
supper	Meg	William	Tam
January	poet	37	Armour
	Selkirk

Robert Burns Answers

Robert Burns was a poet. He was born on 25th January 1759. His birthplace was in Alloway, Ayrshire. His mother and father were called William and Agnes. He worked on the family farm for many years whilst writing his early poems.

Robert Burns married Jean Armour. He moved to Dumfries and became a taxman. He died in 1796, at the age of 37.

We remember him on his birthday by celebrating Burns Day with a Burns supper. At the beginning of the meal, we usually say 'The Selkirk Grace', followed by his famous poem 'To a Haggis'.

One of Robert Burns' most famous poems is Tam o' Shanter. This is set in the town of Ayr and follows the story of Tam, who rides home on his horse, Meg, during a stormy night.